Pomeranian University in Słupsk

POLISH LANGUAGE PREPARATORY COURSE

2027/2028 EDITION (FOR DOUBLE-DEGREE PARTNERS)

The 9-month Polish Language Preparatory Course is designed for international candidates who intend to pursue higher education in Poland at Pomeranian University in Słupsk and must meet the updated visa and admission requirements introduced in 2025*.

* Under the new visa regulations in Poland, candidates applying for admission to a Polish university must submit either a certificate proving language proficiency at B2 level or confirmation that they have successfully completed a 9-month preparatory course. The requirements concern the language of instruction.

🌟 Why choose the course?

✔ Enables you to meet the mandatory B2 language requirement (Polish)
✔ Increases your chances of obtaining a student visa
✔ Offers an authentic experience of Poland and its culture
✔ Enhances your international experience
✔ Brings Pomeranian University in Słupsk closer to you

👉 Practical information

✔ Language of instruction: Polish
✔ Entry requirement: Polish at A1 level; status of a double-degree student
✔ Course load: 650 teaching hours (2 semesters)
✔ Mode: hybrid (1st semester – online; 2nd semester – on-campus)
✔ Dates: 15 September 2027 – 30 June 2028
✔ Tuition fee: 550 euros per semester (total: 1,100 euros)
✔ Accommodation: Dormitory accommodation at a reduced rate of 100 euro per month

🌍 Who should apply?

The Course is intended for candidates who:

- plan to apply for studies at Pomeranian University in Słupsk,
- need to complete the course to fulfil student visa requirements,
- wish to improve their Polish language skills and cultural competence.

📩 For more information, please contact the Admissions Office
rekrutacja@upsl.edu.pl

 The hybrid course is intended for international partners participating in a double-degree programme with Pomeranian University in Słupsk. The course will be launched subject to a minimum enrolment of 15 participants.*